ENTERPRISE ENABLEMENT

Throughout the engagement, NeuEon equips teams with the tools to achieve continuous improvement.

NeuEon is accustomed to working with enterprises that are just getting started toward their transformation goals and are seeking the best strategy and roadmap to address symptoms and uncover barriers to achievement. Conversely, our clients may have attempted transformation via trainings and certifications and are not seeing expected results.

High performing teams and, consequently, high performing organizational transformation is not an overnight process, but approached with a clear strategy and roadmap for implementation—based on proven practice methodologies—can help your teams drive unparalleled results.

As a boutique consulting firm specializing in organizational transformation and development excellence, NeuEon is unique in combining the depth of strategic understanding necessary to navigate complex transformations, and the expertise to work across levels on tactical change and implementation.

Agile Transformations, the SAFe® Framework and High Performing Organizations

NeuEon is one of the pioneers in achieving Scale Agile Framework® (SAFe) certification. This framework is an emerging standard for Agile Transformation and Lean-Agile systems development at enterprise scale. While SAFe can be a framework employed as a component of High Performing Organizations, this framework is not always the best choice and is highly dependent on the strategic goals for development, and solely focused on particular groups within a company. NeuEon can help ascertain whether the SAFe framework should (or should not) be utilized to achieve goals.
